SILENT AUCTION AND LUNCHEON BENEFIT

We had a successful silent auction and luncheon benefit on November 1st, 2008 held at St. Augustine Catholic Church 11524 Hwy 278 Covington, GA. We thank Fr. Roberto Orellana and his congregation for allowing us to use the Moore Hall free of charge and the support they have given us this year. Kim Turner and Elizabeth Mckinion-Smith came to boldly share their testimonies. Ms. Turner spoke about her own personal experience with regards abortion.. Ms. Mckinion-Smith talked about the joys and pain of adoption.

We thank all the people and business organizations who came and donated for the silent auction and for the luncheon benefit. Please continue to patronize the following businesses who donated items for the silent auction:

McKibben Music at the Covington Square
Stevie B's Pizza at Hwy 278, Covington
Associated Printing at Hwy 278, Covington
Too Unique Hair Salon, Mansfield
Utopia Day Spa at the Covington Square
Ginn Chrysler/ Dodge/ Jeep, Covington
Linda Jesky, Premiere Jewelry 770 388 0348
Janna Macdonald, Pampered Chef 678 413 9242
Tami Carroll at Wattie's Hair Salon, Covington

SCRIPTURE FOR THE DAY: Matthew 2: 16-18.

Then Herod, when he saw he was mocked of the wise men, was exceeding wrath and sent forth, and slew all the children that were in Bethlehem, and in all the coasts, thereof, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had diligently inquired of the wise men.

Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet, saying In Ramah was there a voice heard, lamentation and weeping, and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children and would not be comforted, because they are not.

Please note that December 28 is known as the Holy Innocents' Day, in honor of the first martyrs as mentioned in the above scripture message. Let us pray to an end to abortion, to which this passage reminds me of innocent children being slaughtered!
