Dear Friend of the Family and the Innocent,

This month, we will be celebrating St. Valentine's Day and Love should be foremost in our minds not just for our spouses but for our children, family, friends and the whole wide world. And, I have helped you on this by the Scripture of the Day by St. Paul's Letter to the Corinthians.

We probably have heard of this scripture or read of it dozens of times, but I would like to propose that we meditate on it until it sings out in our very being and the truth of it would just glow in us. If every intention, thought and action we take spells out love then the world would truly be a better place. If each and every human being just does things out of love, then we would always have good news to watch on television or listen to the radio. I know that scares the devil literally! But we can try to do so in our own little sphere of influence, our own little world consciously asking every minute of our lives, every breath we take, "Are my intentions, thoughts, actions out of LOVE?"

God Loves Us and May he continue to bless us with LOVE!!!!

Annie Karns

SCRIPTURE OF THE DAY. 1 Corinthians 13:1-12 Abbreviated.

If I speak in human and angelic tongues, but do not have love, I am a resounding gong or a clanging cymbal. And if I have the gift of prophecy and comprehend all mysteries and all knowledge; if I have all faith so as to move mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing. If I give away everything I own and if I hand over my body over so that I may boast but do not have love, I gain nothing.

Love is patient, love is kind. It is not jealous, love is not pompous, it is not inflated, it is not rude, it does not seek its own interests, it is not quick-tempered, it does not brood over injury, it does not rejoice over wrongdoing but rejoices with the truth. It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never fails. So faith, hope, love remains these three; but the greatest of these is love.

The Premiere Jewelry Party had many people come to the event and garnered needed dollars. It was definitely a success! We thankful for the use of the house for the party. For more jewelry needs, call Linda Jesky 770 388 0348
